

Rob Loughery (Keystone Redevelopment Group) shows Jim Greenwood (BIO) plans for the Bridge Business Center.

Keystone Redevelopment Group recently held an open house at the Bridge Business Center to showcase the first 50,000 square feet of renovated Research Development/Laboratory space at its 30 acre campus on land formerly owned by Rohm and Haas. James C. Greenwood, President and CEO of the Biotechnology Industry Organization (BIO) in Washington, D.C., attended the event.

James Wood has been appointed vice chairman of the Board of Directors of 3rd Federal Bank. Wood has been a member of the bank's board since 2004.